The image is a screenshot of a web browser displaying the Yahoo! Groups website. The browser's address bar shows the URL <http://groups.yahoo.com/>. The page header includes navigation links like "New User? Register", "Sign In", and "Help", along with a search bar and a "Web Search" button. The main content area features a green banner with the text "A world of people who share your passions." and "With millions of groups at your fingertips, it's easy to find the group that's best for you -- no matter your interest." Below this, there is a search section titled "Find a Yahoo! Group" with a text input field and a yellow "Search" button. An example text "(Example: pottery, Harry Potter, crock-pot)" is provided below the input field. To the right of the search section is a red advertisement for Netflix, featuring the movie "Shutter Island" and a "FREE TRIAL" badge. Three numbered blue circles with arrows point to the address bar, the search input field, and the search button respectively.

Step 2. Message Delivery

Yahoo! Groups lets you choose how you stay in touch.

- Individual Email
The option to choose if you want to get each group message and special notice individually and immediately, as it is posted.
- Daily Digest
The option to choose if you want to see all messages but limit the amount of email you receive. We'll compile an email of up to 25 messages and send daily (special notices too!).
- Special Notices - Receive only important email notices from the group moderator.
- Web Only - Don't get notified of the latest happenings. Read messages only on the web.
